FROM SUSTAINABLE
AND RESPONSIBLE
AQUACULTURE

Worldwide, more than 50 percent of all fish and seafood produced for human consumption comes from aquaculture – numbers increasing.

- Sustainable aquaculture with pollutant free and oxygen-rich freshwater
- Delicate and just slightly sweet taste
- The fish meat is free from chemicals and additives
- Tilapia contains less mercury but is rich in vital nutrients, which makes it the perfect choice for pregnant women and children (EPA and FDA awarded Tilapia as “Best choice”)
